the piece for listener can be performed by accessing the listening stations in the order specified in the score. for the indicated length of time, please stand on the circular mark on the floor facing in the direction indicated by the two footprints and open your ears to the sounds surrounding you. if there is no clock easily available without disturbing your listening process, use your own sense of time. signs by each mark will guide you to the next station. there is a total of 14 stations, and the length of a complete performance is approximately 45 minutes. it is recommended to re-experience the piece at different times of the day and the week.

feel free to listen at the stations for any length of time out of the context of the piece.

http://music.calarts.edu/~jo/pieceforlistener.html